

MRS. PANKHURST SURE SHE WILL NOT BE DEPORTED HERE

"Neither an Undesirable Nor a Fugitive," She Will Trust
Fairness of Americans.

PARIS, Sept. 17.—I have that much faith in the open-mindedness of Americans that I will sail for New York as announced," Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, untanned leader of the British suffragettes, today told the United Press correspondent here.

"I think I will not be detained at Ellis Island, but I am not afraid to face the ordeal if I should be held. I know it will not be for long. I surely will not be deported. The Americans are fair and will give me a hearing. They cannot hold me as an undesirable and I am not a fugitive from justice. I am at liberty from prison under our odious 'cat-and-mouse' law and the English authorities made no attempt to prevent me leaving home for France, although they knew all about my plans for sailing."

"I positively shall sail from Havre for New York on Oct. 11. I have already booked my passage on the French liner La Provence. I shall report to no subterfuge, shall not travel incognito and shall enter America under my right name. I am convinced that I shall receive only fair play from the American people and the American authorities."

Miss Christabel Pankhurst, who is with her mother here, said that she would not go to America, she said that Mrs. Pankhurst, since intimating that her daughter would substitute for her if conditions in the United States looked to be unfavorable, had received advice that determined her to carry out her original programme.

What these advisers were she did not say. Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, a "cat and mouse" prisoner like her mother, is here, but will return to London when Mrs. Pankhurst sails for New York. "I certainly shall not advocate militancy in America," Mrs. Pankhurst said. "I am going there solely to preach the gospel of the woman suffrage cause, particularly in its relation to sex hygiene and white slavery."

MASKED THUGS KILL MAN, WOUND THREE OTHERS

Four in Chicago Holdup Bind Victims Then Smash Safe and Escape With $2,000.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Four masked robbers forced an entrance to the delivery station of Handel Bros., at No. 285 West Van Buren street today, shot and killed Michael Wasechuk, a salesman; beat and bound three other employees, then broke open the safe and escaped with $2,000.

Not Necessary Now.
(From the Buffalo Express.)
"Are you going to the seashore this summer?"
"What is the need of spending the money since I am engaged now?" asked the practical young woman.

MISS BETTY'S SONG MADE BRAVE TAR WEEP

MISS BETTY CALLISH
Maybe It Was the Way It Was
Sung, but the Writer Leaves
It to the Inspired.

Miss Betty Callish, a pretty little Dutch girl, arrived from the old country today on the Cunarder Caronia. Miss Betty is sunshiny enough to lift the heaviest fog. Her name might suggest the yodel and woeen songs, but her appearance is as far removed from this as the golden canary is from the pugnacious sparrow.

Betty is brown haired, pretty, blue-eyed and twenty-two. This is her first visit to the United States, and she comes here to play on the violin and sing. Last Monday night they had a concert in the salon for the benefit of the sailors of the sea and Miss Betty was the star performer. For a final encore she sang "Robin Adair," and at its conclusion Capt. Dow of the Caronia, than whom no braver tar ever trod a deck, had tears in his eyes when he swung out of the cabin to gaze on the stars and the sea.

Miss Callish was attired all in white when she appeared on deck this morning. This was a rebuke to the chill of the morning, but as a sop to the metropolis she wore a tiger skin coat. The tiger who once roamed in the coat was shot by an admirer of the pretty Dutch girl in the jungle of Java. Miss Callish sings in Italian, German, English and French, and plays the violin in the universal language.

JAIL WARDEN KANE DEAD.

Thomas F. Kane, warden of Raymond street jail, Brooklyn, died today in his apartment in the jail after an illness of five weeks. The warden had suffered from organic trouble for eight years and it was made acute by grief over the death of his daughter, following a slight operation in July.

Mr. Kane was appointed warden Aug. 4, 1912, to succeed William H. McLaughlin, who died in office; he was previously head keeper at Hart's Island. His wife, two sons and a daughter survive him. The funeral will be at the Church of Our Lady of Mercy on Saturday.

SPLIT IN THE BOARD MAY PUT DOWLING AT HEAD OF ALDERMEN

Tammany Hopes to Elect New Vice-Chairman Through Republican Revolt.

The Fusion split in the Board of Aldermen, provoked because Brooklyn Republican leaders refused renominations to three Fusion Aldermen, was widened today. It was predicted that the Tammany floor leader, Frank Dowling, would have no trouble being elected Vice-Chairman of the Board if Mr. Dowling decides he wants the place. The Aldermen meet next Tuesday to elect a vice-chairman to succeed Mayor Adolph L. Kline. The new vice-chairman will sit in the Board of Estimate and pass on the budget for the coming year.

Aldermen Robert F. Downing, George A. Morrison and H. P. Grimm are said to resent the treatment they have received. If they vote with the Democrats as a matter of retaliation, Tammany will be able to put one man on the Board of Estimate. Borough President Connolly is the only member of the Board whose political complexion in any way approaches a Tammany hue at present.

The Fusion vote in the Board is forty members. Tammany controls thirty members. With the three not voting, absent or switching their votes, Tammany would gain control. Tammany's chances are enhanced by the prospects of a squabble among the Fusionists over the Vice-Chairmanship. O. Grant Esterbrook of Brooklyn, Henry H. Curran, Ralph Folks and John A. Hollis have stowed friends to announce their candidacies for the place.

If Leader Dowling prefers to remain as leader he may indicate a preference for Alderman John F. Walsh for the Vice-Chairmanship for the balance of the year. The new Vice-Chairman will have three votes in the Board of Estimate, the same number the Mayor has.

This Leaves the Skin Smooth and Hairless

(Bosch's Secret.)
The electric needle for removing hairy or fuzzy growths is fast falling into disfavor among beauty specialists, because quicker and better results are obtained with the aid of a paste made by stirring together a little powdered delatone and water. This is applied on the hairs not wanted and in 2 minutes rubbed off, and with it comes every trace of hair. The skin should then be washed to remove the remaining paste, and it will be left smooth and spotless. Buy delatone in original packages only.—Advt.

JIMMY HAGAN ON HAND WHEN FIGHTING GUNMEN COME UP IN COURT

Shooting in Broadway From Autos Part of Gorilla Pri-

The four gunmen and "repeaters" of the Jack Sirocco gang—Frank Martin, Frank Hart, Vito Machetto and Isaac Kibel, the chauffeur—who were captured yesterday after a flying revolver fight on Broadway with a similar gang of the "Hudson Dusters" and the "Rosa Men" ensconced in an automobile held by Magistrate Marsh in the West 83d Court today under $50 bail apiece for further examination to-morrow afternoon.

In order that they might be surely held until the charge of having participated in election frauds can be lodged against them, the charge of disorderly conduct supplanted that of violating the Sullivan law under which they were originally locked up. The first charge was made on account of a fully loaded revolver which was found on the floor of the automobile after Traffic Policeman James Neary overtook the flying automobile. Since no witness could be found to identify this revolver as the property of any one of the four in the car, and all four could not be made responsible for the presence of the single revolver, the charge was changed.

The busiest man in the courtroom when the four were arraigned was State Deputy Tax Collector "Jimmy" Hagan, Tammany leader in the Fifteenth Assembly District and the man whose leadership was disputed at the primaries yesterday by George Form, precipitating the importation of the gangsters by both contending factions. Hagan passed behind the court rail, where nobody but the accused and counsel has any right to be, and into the complaint room, equally forbidden to one not a Tammany leader such as Hagan. When he was sure that "Jimmy" Marsh, the Republican leader in the Third, would renew the bond provided for the four prisoners last night to provide their bail to-day, Hagan hustled off.

GEORGE COHAN'S ARM BROKEN, X-RAY SHOWS.

HEARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 17.—It was learned by an X-ray examination today that George M. Cohan, actor and playwright, had his left arm broken in the auto accident on the Berlin turnpike in which he figured on Sept. 4. The bone was broken just below the shoulder. Mr. Cohan is moving around.
